

332 WASHINGTON

GAINESVILLE, GEORGIA

332 Washington St. NW, in Gainesville, GA is a 3-story mass masonry building with multiple brick layers. The building is referred to as “The Gym of 36” as it was originally the gym for Gainesville High School. The building was renovated in 1991 to include a new standing seam metal roof and storefront windows on the second and third levels.

Work of this project included; tuckpointing the exterior masonry mortar joints, wet sealing of windows, and replacement of cracked/damaged individual bricks, steel lintel painting and/or repairs, louver replacement and /or repainting, sealant repairs, and masonry crack repairs. Lastly, it includes cleaning all of the brick and cast stone and applying a clear penetrating water repellent.
