

STANTON HALL

NATCHEZ, MISSISSIPPI

Built in the 1850s, it is one of the most opulent antebellum mansions to survive in the southeastern United States. It is now operated as a historic house museum by the Pilgrimage Garden Club. The house was declared a National Historic Landmark in 1974.

United Restoration assisted in a design build delivery of the restoration of this historic civil war era homestead. The exterior stucco had begun to fail as a result of structural deficiencies found within the cornice and parapet. United completed a complete rebuild of the masonry parapet and stucco cover, structural reinforcement of the masonry cornice, repairs of architectural stucco elements (such as dental molds and soffit areas) and full column restoration at the building grand entrance.
